25X1A [redacted] over the weekend to review this complicated piece of legislation in the interest of assuring that our equities are protected.

25X1 25X6 10. [redacted] At the request of Mr. Pforzheimer, spoke with [redacted] and reviewed with him a number of the factors and considerations which must be borne in mind in evaluating the impact of the recent Freedom of Information Act amendments, including the possibility of an early court test of the constitutionality of the courts breaking an executive security classification.

25X1 25X1C 11. [redacted] Met separately with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff; and Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and reviewed with them the matter set forth in the cable, [redacted]

25X1 12. [redacted] Met with William H. Hogan, Counsel, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee, and delivered to him the Huston transcript of 9 July 1974. In keeping with the suggestion of James Angleton, C/CI, I recommended to Hogan that the transcript be forwarded to NSA for their review, since various NSA procedures are discussed in the transcript. In response to his question, I suggested that Hogan might contact the General Counsel at NSA, [redacted] Hogan 25X1A appreciated the Agency's suggestion.

25X1 13. [redacted] Delivered to Representative Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wis.) a copy of the China Atlas which he had requested.

Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him the memorandum for the record for the Intelligence Subcommittee briefing of 25 November 1974 and the Committee procedures we utilized with regard to the memorandum for the record. Slatinshek asked that I check the details of this particular memorandum with Hogan, since he (Slatinshek) had not been present at the briefing. The blind memorandum form is exactly what is desired, and the copy to be retained by the Committee should not be signed. This copy will be retained in a "personal" file maintained by Slatinshek as Chief Counsel.

Met with Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and delivered to him copies of the Frey letter of 14 November 1974, Stennis letter of 3 December 1974 and the draft proposed letter for Senator John L. McClellan (D., Ark.) and Representative George H. Mahon (D., Texas) in the event the Foreign Assistance Act is passed in its present form. Preston appreciated the background information, as he was on his way to a meeting with Chairman Mahon prior to meeting with the full Committee on a continuing resolution which will include Foreign Assistance Act monies.
